This is your chance to advertise in a glass art print magazine at a great introductory rate, as well as a chance for you to reach your target audience (the glass pipe art enthusiast) without worrying about being associated with other subject matter typically found in magazines your prospects purchase and read.

Our print magazine will be distributed nationally to various glass shops and galleries. It will also be available internationally via internet subscription. This is the first magazine of its kind, as it focuses solely on glass pipe art.
